

SWYE360 Makes Waves with the Launch of its Multi-Phased Engagement to Drive Learning Outcomes.

Leveraging the power of Machine Learning & AI to measure the impact of software, saving districts millions on under-utilized and ineffective software.

FRISCO, TX, UNITED STATES, January 18, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SWYE360, a pioneering force in educational technology, is making headlines by unveiling its 3-phased multi-year customer engagement plan. Positioned as the frontrunner in the Edtech aggregator software sector for school districts nationwide, SWYE360's innovative approach aims to ensure equitable access to quality teaching and learning experiences for students from all backgrounds.

In a recent YouTube video, SWYE360's leadership team introduced the revolutionary professional support plan driven by a commitment to impactful learning outcomes. The company, backed by prestigious entities like Techstars and JP Morgan Chase Co., is addressing a critical question in education: "How do you know the software your students are using has an impact on their learning outcomes?"

“

At SWYE360, we believe that technology in the hands of great teachers can be transformational, but first instruction is the most important to driving learning outcomes.”
