Botanicals, LLC is pleased to introduce its product bundles. These product additions are a further expansion of its extensive hemp-derived CBD product line offering customers convenience and built-in savings.

Imbue Botanicals offers an extensive line of premium CBD products produced from organically grown Colorado hemp, carefully curated for both people and pets.

“We are so excited to introduce our product bundles” said Chris Jurist, Managing Member of Imbue Botanicals. “Product bundling is a technique in which several products are grouped together and sold as a single unit for one price. And it’s becoming a very popular purchasing option for many consumers. Businesses pass on the economies of scale, inventory management and operational efficiencies to customers resulting in lower prices. But it isn’t just about price. Our bundles provide customers with exceptional convenience, the ability to purchase their products quickly, buy for more than just one cycle or month, and a vastly improved user experience.”

“Whether you’re looking to buy multiple units of the same product or one of our carefully curated bundles that offer multiple different products that provide added benefits when used together, Imbue has you covered.”

Currently Imbue has 6 different bundles available with additional ones coming throughout 2024. The products are available online at www.imbuebotanicals.com
