Journey into the heart of adventure with Sam and Beauregard, where courage meets whimsy in a tale that captivates both young hearts and the young at heart.”

Dominic Albano

Dominic Albano takes readers on a thrilling journey with his debut novel, "The Incredible Adventures of Sam and Beauregard." This captivating tale follows the retired gold miner, Sam, and his loyal companion, Beauregard, as they face hairy monsters, quicksand, rushing rivers, and a showdown with the Bigfoot Queen. This book promises a rollercoaster of emotions for both kids and adults alike.

About the Book:

Sam's devoted hound dog, Beauregard, is in perilous peril at the hands of unidentified Bigfoot entities; this riveting story follows Sam on an unforgettable mission to save Beauregard. Surprising turns await Sam at every turn as he faces supernatural enemies and navigates perilous surroundings. The shocking turn of events, together with the emergence of heroes and the formation of alliances, will captivate readers of all ages.

About the Author, Dominic Albano:

Dominic Albano, a passionate educator from Penn Valley, California, realized his dream of becoming a school teacher after attending Chico State and Chapman University. After earning his teaching degree in 1995, he spent a year as a substitute teacher in neighboring schools, captivating youngsters with his Sam and Beauregard tale. In 1996, he secured a full-time teaching position at Union Hill School in Grass Valley, California, where he has remained ever since.

Inspiration Behind the Book:

Inspired by his love for the American West, he built "Dusty Falls," a ½ scale western town, and shared captivating Sam and Beauregard stories during his 28-year tenure at Union Hill School in Grass Valley, California. In 2023, with the encouragement of a former student, Albano finally brought his beloved stories to life with the publication of 'Book One' of his beloved stories.

A Journey Through Time:

The reader is transported to the late 1800s. Where Sam, a gold miner, is confronted with obstacles that put his bravery and perseverance to the test. The quaint western town of Dusty Falls, deep, dark gold mines, and rushing rivers are all vividly depicted in Albano's evocative narratives of the Old West. Those in search of an exhilarating journey must read this immersive experience, which offers an unparalleled fusion of history and fantasy.

Legacy of Dusty Falls:

The inspiration behind the book, "Dusty Falls," continues to be a source of fascination for youngsters and their families. Albano's creation of a summer camp, coupled with Sam and Beauregard's enduring popularity, highlights storytelling's impact on young minds. Albano's legacy lives on as a teacher and storyteller through the generations he has inspired.

Twists and Turns:

Prepare for a rollercoaster of emotions as Sam faces physical challenges and emotional turmoil. Readers are left to ponder the fine line between good and evil in light of the narrative's increased complexity introduced by the Bigfoot Queen's unanticipated turn. Albano's masterful storytelling keeps audiences engaged from start to finish.

Author's Enduring Commitment:

Beyond the written word, Dominic Albano's commitment to education and community shines through. For 28 years at Union Hill School, he has coached cross country and track teams, organized yearly adventures down historic Highway 49, and led East Coast trips for eighth graders. Albano's dedication to fostering a love for learning and adventure is evident on every page of "The Incredible Adventures of Sam and Beauregard."

An Interesting Children's Book:

"The Incredible Adventures of Sam and Beauregard" is now available to captivate readers with its blend of history, fantasy, and heart-pounding excitement on Amazon Kindle. Join Sam, Beauregard, Lightning Bob, and Mountain Jim on an unforgettable quest filled with twists, turns, and unexpected heroes.
