About Erin Friday, Esq.

Erin Friday, Esq. is a licensed California attorney. Erin is a life-long Democrat whose daughter used to believe that she was a boy. She co-leads the Western Region of <https://www.OurDuty.group>, an international group of parents and allies who are fighting to protect children and vulnerable adults against gender ideology. She is also on the executive committee for <https://www.Protectkidsca.com>, a bi-partisan group that is proposing a California Ballot Initiative to stop gender interventions on children, remove males from female spaces and sports, and bar schools from secretly socially transitioning children.

She has authored articles in the Wall Street Journal, Daily Signal, the Ohio Press, the Epoch Times, Our Duty Substack, Post Millennial and for Parents of Inconvenient Truths about Trans. She is in several documentaries including the Daily Caller's Groomed and the Epoch Times, Gender Transformation: The Untold Realities. She has been on Fox News and Fox and Friends to discuss California bills.

Erin is frequently found in Sacramento fighting bills that erode parental rights and force parents to subject their children to gender interventions, and proposing bills that return parental rights. She is behind many of the parental notification policies being adopted at schools to stop the secret social transitions of students.
