

Executive and Advisory Board Member Meghan S. Anzelc, Ph.D. Awarded the DCRO Institute Certificate in Risk Governance®

GLOBAL, ORGANIZATION, January 22,
2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The DCRO

Institute, the world's leading source of risk governance training and credentials for board members and C-suite executives, announced today the award of the prestigious Certificate in Risk Governance® to Meghan S. Anzelc, Ph.D. of Chicago, Illinois, in the United States.

Meghan is putting her knowledge and experience at the forefront of industry association work in critical areas of new technology and data and will surely continue to expand her influence.”

*David R. Koenig, QRD®,
President and CEO of The DCRO Institute*

Meghan is the chief data and analytics officer for Three Arc Advisory, a member of the advisory board for Athena Alliance, where she co-chairs the AI task force, and a member of the national cybersecurity committee and Chicago programming committee for the Private Directors Association. In her prior executive roles, Meghan served as the global head of data and analytics for Spencer Stuart, the chief analytics officer for AXIS Capital, and the North America head of data and analytics for Zurich North America. She earned her Ph.D. and M.S. in physics and astronomy from Northwestern University and her B.S. in Physics from Loyola University Chicago.

"Meghan has been a thoughtful contributor to our programs as a case study interviewee," said David R. Koenig, QRD® President and Chief Executive Officer of the DCRO Institute. "She's putting her knowledge and experience at the forefront of industry association work in critical areas of new technology and data and will surely continue to expand her influence." he continued.

The Certificate in Risk Governance® is awarded to those who have completed The Board Members' Course on Risk® - an intensive 17-course education program and evaluation. The curriculum is designed for current and aspiring board members who seek to advance the governance of risk-taking at their organizations and those who interact with boards. Taught by some of the world's leading figures in risk governance, the program features lessons by nearly 50 board members, C-level executives, and well-known authors from five continents. No course on risk for board members as robust as this - depth, practicality, and global expertise - exists anywhere else.

"This program provides a valuable view of many different types of risks and how board directors should think about and manage them," said Dr. Anzelc. "I appreciated hearing from a diverse set of experts from across the globe who provided real-world examples and hard-earned knowledge from their experiences."

The fundamental Duty of Care for directors around risk is to ensure that our organizations take risks well in pursuit of our goals and ambitions. This course furthers the fulfillment of that duty.
