

VHS Learning Students Continue to Excel Academically with 91% Pass Rate

This is the fourth consecutive year that VHS Learning students have attained an average pass rate of 91%.

BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, January 23, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Although reports reveal that U.S. students' general academic performance still trails behind pre-pandemic rates, students taking VHS Learning's high-quality, teacher-led online classes have maintained a consistent high level of achievement before, during, and after the pandemic. During the 2022-23 academic year, 91% of students who completed their VHS Learning's online course did so with a passing grade. This is the fourth consecutive year that VHS Learning students have attained an average pass rate of 91%.

Our pass rates and retention and satisfaction rates reflect the quality of our program and our high standards for teaching.”

Carol DeFuria, President & CEO of VHS Learning

Students who took VHS Learning courses in the summer for credit recovery surpassed last year's performance. In 2023, those students who previously failed a course and retaken it in the summer with VHS Learning had an average pass rate of 80%, up from 75% in 2022. Students must achieve a final grade of 60 or higher to pass their courses.

In the 27 years that VHS Learning has been providing supplemental online high school classes, it has earned a reputation for its high standard of educational quality that keeps schools and students coming back. In the 2022-2023 academic year, VHS Learning had 16,927 course enrollments by students from more than 520 partner schools. Last year, 92% of schools previously utilizing the program continued their participation into the 2022-2023 school year. Further, 90% of administrators and 90% of site coordinators who manage the VHS Learning program at their school said they were satisfied or very satisfied with their school's VHS Learning experience.
