Below NYC in October. Sharing stories and anecdotes, Lisa, who manages the legacy song catalogue of her father, legendary songwriter, Ron Miller (1932-2007), produces, hosts, and performs along with special guests. Broadway World writes, "Sometimes a music event can seem to capture as much magic and emotion as an old fairy tale and, likewise, has an impact that will long be recalled. 'For Once in My Life' is one of those memorable nights of songs and stories. It's moving."

My dad is smiling from heaven as we celebrate him. I'm honored to work with amazing, talented artists and musicians as we sing Ron Miller in a wondrous evening of love, laughter, and music.”

As one of Motown Records' first-signed and most successful hitmakers, Ron Miller (1932-2007) (ronmillersongbook.com), penned some of the label's biggest hits including multiple Grammy Award winner, "For Once in My Life," recorded by more than 700 major label artists and inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame. Some of his other standards include, "Touch Me in the Morning," "Heaven Help Us All," "A Place in the Sun," "Yester-me, Yester-you, Yesterday," "Someday at Christmas," "I've Never Been to Me," and "If I Could." In addition to his numerous RIAA Gold and Multi-Platinum records and BMI awards, Ron's songs have been featured in multiple blockbuster and Academy Award-winning films, and on countless television shows throughout the decades as well as in major global ad campaigns.

With more guest appearances to be announced, the lineup includes comedian/actor Sandy Hackett, son of legendary comedian Buddy Hackett, and star of the hit musical Sandy Hackett's Rat Pack, along with singer/songwriter, TikTok sensation and recent NYU Tisch graduate Oliver Richman (Ron's grandson) and composer Bryan Wells who co-wrote several Stevie Wonder hits with Ron. The band includes top-notch musicians, Mairi Dorman-Phaneuf (Cello), Matt Scharfglass (Bass) and Music Director, Ryan Rose (Drums),

Of its 54 Below debut, producer/director Robert W. Schneider, who co-produced the premiere with Lisa, said "This evening will celebrate the one and only Maestro of Motown, Ron Miller, a songwriter who not only entertained audiences for over fifty years, but through his music provided a voice for the voiceless, infused joy into our hearts, and defined an entire generation through his music."

Motown founder, Berry Gordy said, "Ron Miller – an artist like you doesn't come for once in my life, but for once, period."

"I'm so excited to present this wonderful show to audiences throughout the country," Lisa said. "My dad is smiling from heaven as we celebrate him. I'm honored to work with amazing, talented artists and musicians as we sing Ron Miller in a wondrous evening of love, laughter, and music. It's been a long 16-year journey fighting to get the rights back to my dad's song catalogue for our family and now, I finally get to tell the real story about this extraordinary, complex, and heroic underdog whose genius continues to come shining through, touching lives generation after generation and still after his death despite the many challenging circumstances of his own life. Telling his story begins by singing his songs, and we are doing that with love in our hearts!"

The show makes its Los Angeles debut at Herb Alpert's Vibrato Jazz in Beverly Hills March 13 and is launching its first theatrical tour for the 2024/2025 season.
