About ONE DAY ALIVE

One Day Alive's blend of thick guitar riffs, melodically driven vocals, and signature feel provides the recipe for their distinct version of new age rock.

With songs that reflect themes of both personal turmoil and triumph, ODA's music delivers a feeling of angst and honesty by way of a dynamic and anthemic sound. Originating from Cincinnati, OH, the group has performed throughout the U. S., sharing the stage with the likes of Fuel, Hinder, Smile Empty Soul, Days of the New, Red Jumpsuit Apparatus, Bobaflex, Taproot, Saliva, and many others.

Upcoming

During the summer of 2021 the band released its debut single "Just Tonight," which received 500 thousand streams in its first 30 days. Shortly after, ODA signed with Silent Majority Group/Warner Music, under the direction of manager Jeff Hanson, whose past band's include mega-selling artists such as Creed, Sevendust, and Alter Bridge. ODA's follow-up single, "Bringing on the Pain," released in November of 2022, reached #13 on the Billboard charts, accumulating an additional One million streams on Spotify alone. Currently, the band is completing work on its debut full-length album with co-producer Jason Null of the platinum-selling rock band, Saving Abel. The album is expected out in the fall of 2024.
