/EINPresswire.com/ -- Certus Core, the data engineering and generative-AI software company announced the creation of its Strategic Advisors Board composed of exceptional industry leaders that will provide Certus Core with strategic growth and advice in its expansion across the government and financial technology markets.

The composition of Certus Core's Strategic Advisory Board represents some of the most highly qualified members of the national security space and venture capital. As Jake Dyal, CEO of Certus Core states, "we are incredibly grateful and excited that Marshall (Billingslea), Stephanie (Usry Bellistri) and Jim (Smith) have joined Certus as members of our Strategic Advisory Board. The experience and expertise of all three of these incredible professionals, not only provide us with an unparalleled level of advice, but also highlight the diverse markets Certus Core intends to serve."

"This is an incredible time for Certus Core. The momentum of organizations requiring a better understanding of their data has shifted from a want to an absolute requirement. From national security, great power competition and the scale of data being generated every day, companies, agencies, and the government need a better approach for scalable data structure to extract knowledge from that data. Certus Core is at the forefront of this revolution," says Casey Johnson, VP of Business Development.

Certus Core's Strategic Advisory Board are:

Mr. Marshall Billingslea, Former Special Presidential Envoy U.S. Department of State; Asst. Secretary for Terrorist Financing, U.S. Treasury Department, Dep, Under Secretary US Navy, Former President of the Financial Action Task Force (FATF)

Mrs. Stephanie Usry Bellistri, General Partner of New North Ventures, Board Member Third Option Foundation, Former Central Intelligence Agency, Former Palantir

Mr. Jim Smith, Former Acquisition Executive for U.S. Special Operations Command, Retired Colonel, Infantry, U.S. Army

Certus Core recently closed its $1.625M seed series round and is pursuing its Series A investment round.
