

Lado International Institute Strengthens its Commitment to Educational Excellence

VIENNA, VIRGINIA, UNITED STATES, January 23, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lado International Institute stands out as one of the most prestigious English as a Second Language (ESL) schools in the Washington DC area, with more than 45 years of experience and offering high-quality English programs tailored to the needs and goals of each student. Accredited by SEVIS, the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Agency under the Department of Homeland Security, Lado International Institute allows students to obtain their Form I-20. This form is crucial for Embassy interviews, where students can apply for the F-1 Visa, enabling them to enter the United States with student status.

To support this process, Lado has an International Admissions Department that guides prospective students through the document processing journey on a personalized basis. The international admissions department is responsible for:

- Advising students on the requirements and steps to obtain the F-1 Visa.
- Sending the Form I-20 to accepted students in their chosen program.
- Guiding students on how to prepare for the Embassy interview and which documents to bring.
- Addressing any questions or concerns students may have regarding the visa process or the ESL program.
