

Edison Healthcare and Revolution Health Announce an Exclusive Partnership

Edison Healthcare and Revolution Health are partnering in the expansion of Edison's exclusive SmartCare Network to best serve growing member needs.

TULSA, OKLAHOMA, UNITED STATES, January 24, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A new partnership has formed between healthcare's most innovative network architects, Revolution Health ("Revolution"), and Edison Healthcare ("Edison"), a pioneer in centers of excellence. This partnership is another step in the significant investment being made to expand one of the most exclusive provider networks in America, Edison's SmartCare Network.

"In our relentless pursuit to deliver high-quality care, drive appropriateness for patients, and restore hope for physicians and clinicians, we could not imagine a more aligned partner than Edison Healthcare," said Justina Lehman, CNP, DNP, Co-Founder and President of Revolution Health.

Jarrold Frie, CEO and Owner at Edison said, "The last 12 months have brought significant expansion in Edison's client base as more employers recognize the multi-faceted impact of our program. To accommodate this growth, we are partnering with the exceptional network architects at Revolution, who share our passion for patient-first healthcare. Their expertise will help us accelerate our network expansion while holding to the highest standards to serve all our members with the most excellent healthcare possible."

Over the next 24 months, Edison will continue the growth of its SmartCare Network throughout the top 50 markets nationwide, utilizing Revolution's exceptional credentialing and validation process to evaluate new providers and facilities. Revolution's commitment to extraordinary quality aligns directly with Edison's core values, making it the ideal partner in this initiative.

About Edison
