These new features come nearly two years after Limey's initial launch and are part of WebLime's commitment to releasing new capabilities on a monthly basis. The addition of donation acceptance allows creators to receive support directly through their Limey sites, similar to popular platforms like Buy Me a Coffee. The link-shortening feature provides users with the ability to create custom, shortened URLs, further enhancing their digital presence.

“

Limey is easy to use! I keep recommending it to my creator friends. Thanks to the link in bio feature, I no longer bother about having all my links together without losing my aesthetics.”
