Spring semester 2024 admission special offer

With a diverse range of learning options, AOJ Language School provides recorded video classes, allowing students to study at any time, complemented by live classes twice a week. The school offers small-sized classes and private lessons tailored to each student's level and needs, facilitating personalized learning experiences and enhancing Japanese language proficiency.

AOJ Language School proudly accepts students from around the world, offering cost-effective tuition to make Japanese language education accessible globally. Thanks to their commitment to quality content, they have garnered students from 30 countries, with over 120 students actively engaged in learning Japanese within just three years of their founding.

They offer Japanese language classes for all levels (N5-N1) during the spring semester. Their curriculum includes 24/7 access to video classes and two 90-minute live classes per week conducted by highly qualified instructors with Japanese teaching credentials. Their video lectures are available in English, Chinese, and Vietnamese subtitle versions, allowing learners to choose convenient study times and progress in Japanese using their native language.

Enrollment for the 2024 spring semester marks the final opportunity to join AOJ Language School at the current monthly fee of ¥14,000, before the upcoming tuition increase. Starting from the fall semester of 2024, the revised tuition fee (¥15,000 per month) will apply, making this current enrollment period the last chance for those who wish to graduate at the pre-revision rate.
