

SOLV Metals Division Welcomes Wisconsin Metal Parts Team

Joining forces amplifies both companies' commitment to exceptional metal solutions for customer success.

FORT WAYNE, IN, USA, January 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SOLV Metals, LLC, welcomes the Wisconsin Metal Parts (WMP) team into its Metals holdings family. This strategic union strengthens SOLV Metal's position in the industry while leveraging opportunities for both companies.

WMP, an anchor of Wisconsin's manufacturing landscape since 1988, brings a legacy of love, craftsmanship, innovation, and responsible business practices. Renowned for its comprehensive range of services, including CNC machining, laser cutting, metal stamping, tool and die making, sheet metal fabrication, and welding, the WMP team is recognized for its unwavering commitment to quality and customer satisfaction. Quality metal fabrication aligns well with SOLV Metal's vision of fostering positive growth and excellence in the metal manufacturing sector.

When we met SOLV and witnessed them living the same values we uphold, we knew we found the right group for our team's future. I look forward to seeing our people and the companies thrive.”

Dan Erschen, Founder of Wisconsin Metal Parts

In 2023, WMP earned the prestigious Single Source Supplier Award from the Wisconsin Manufacturer of the Year Awards Association and the WCBA Medium Business of the Year Award. These accolades highlight the innovative approach and dedicated commitment to quality that makes WMP an attractive partner to SOLV.

“We have been working for years, setting the next generation up for success. When we met SOLV and witnessed them living the same values we uphold, we knew we found the right group for our team's future. I look forward to seeing our people and the companies thrive.” says Dan Erschen, Founder of Wisconsin Metal Parts.

“We are confident that this partnership will propel WMP’s and SOLV Metals growth by providing our clients with a first and last stop metals manufacturer,” says Mark Webb, CEO of SOLV Metals Division.” We are excited to join forces with WMP to leverage their resources, elevating our overall capabilities, expanding our reach, and delivering even more exceptional solutions to the SOLV family of valued customers.”

“Joining SOLV unlocks a world of opportunity for expanded resources, cutting-edge technology, and broader market reach,” says Andy Kolokoski, President of Wisconsin Metal Parts. “It opens doors for our team’s professional growth, our businesses’ regional growth, and the chance to be part of a larger, impactful force in the metal parts industry.”
