Located just minutes from Brambleton Town Center, the restored 1940s dairy barn offers room for up to 200 guests on each of its two levels. In addition to expansive halls to accommodate large groups, the building contains multiple break-out rooms, a catering-ready kitchen and well-appointed bride and groom suites. An upper deck, a lower terrace and an amphitheater invite the crowd outside to enjoy sweeping views of Virginia's countryside.

"The Barn at Brambleton honors the area's agricultural roots while inviting the community to become part of its story," said Eric Hansen, sales manager with Miller & Smith. "The old dairy barn, a landmark of Loudoun County's past, is a place to mark special milestones and new beginnings."

In addition to hosting parties and events, The Barn at Brambleton serves as an arts and crafts venue for the community, hosting multiple fairs throughout the year along with events and workshops.

Birchwood at Brambleton offers residents exceptional on-site amenities, including two spacious clubhouses with an exercise room, an art studio, pickleball and bocce ball courts, indoor and outdoor pools, a fishing pier and much more!
