Filmed in their sunny Malibu home, the series shows the down-to-earth side of the famous couple as they cook nutrient-rich dishes from vegetables grown in their own garden. "The best part of having your own garden is being able to go out and grab your lettuce and your herbs for whatever you're cooking," says Cayley.

Seeing how a plant-based lifestyle has invigorated them, Brandon and Cayley want to share it with their family and, now, the world.”

Important qualities for the surf-loving Brandon.

“At Home with the Jenners shows this famous family’s rustic, healthful, and down-to-earth side,” said Producer/Director Eamonn McCrystal. “Seeing how a plant-based lifestyle has invigorated them, Brandon and Cayley want to share it with their family and, now, the world. It’s a great way to kick off the new year!”

Viewers also get a glimpse into Brandon's life as a pilot, as he takes his wife Cayley, whom he affectionately calls “My sweet gardener,” on a flight over Malibu. And, they get acquainted with the couple's unusual pets including chickens Teacup and Goldie and Tortellini the tortoise.
