“It is truly an honor to be recognized for the second year in a row as an outstanding lawyer in Louisiana. This acknowledgment reflects not only my dedication to the legal profession but also to my clients and the New Orleans community. I am committed to providing top-notch legal services, and this recognition further motivates all of Transcendent Law Group to uphold the highest standards of excellence in our practice,” says Craig.

In her practice, Craig serves as trusted legal counsel for organizations of all sizes. She primarily practices labor and employment, education, and civil litigation. She also serves as the outside general counsel for several companies where she provides proactive management, human resources guidance, and day-to-day legal counseling. Additionally, Craig provides legal counsel to existing and newly formed charter schools, community colleges, and universities. Craig is very active in the community and is passionate about the economic viability and development of the New Orleans area. She is the former Chairperson of the New Orleans Civil Service Commission and the former Chairperson of the Downtown Development District in New Orleans. She believes in protecting the resilience and uniqueness of the culture while advocating for a stronger, sustainable, and economically successful New Orleans community.
