About Victorino's Pizzeria:

When El Pollo Grill owner and San Diego businessman Victor Lopez and his family visited New York in 2022, he tasted some of the best pizzas in the Big Apple. The flavors and quality inspired him to bring NYC-quality to a California pizzeria. Victor hired a New York-based pizza maker and expert to bring the quality of pizza that San Diego is missing. The menu will also include California and Detroit-style pizzas and pies, making it the only pizzeria in South Bay to bring multiple styles together under one roof. We hope you give every style a try and look forward to receiving feedback from the local community.
