For the Top AI or Process-Automation Implementation of the Year category, IBA Group submitted a price management solution the company implemented at a leading European furniture retailer.

As for the Most Vibrant Employer category, IBA Group's submission covered employee support in the country, where the company has its headquarters and developments centers. To empower employees and their families, IBA Group offers a package of social and financial benefits, including medical care, financial assistance, sports and tourism, and festive events and gifts, as well as training courses in IT, foreign languages, and business.

About CEE Business Services Summit & Awards

The CEE Business Services Awards is an annual contest for organizations that provide business services in Central and Eastern Europe. The European Business Services Association launched the awards 12 years ago. IBA Group was shortlisted for a number of CEE Business Services Awards and became a winner in 2017 with the project Promotion of IT among People with Disabilities in the category Top CSR Initiative of the Year.

In 2024, 97 companies were included in the 30 categories of the CEE Business Services Awards shortlist. Winners will be announced at the CEE Business Services Summit & Awards to be held from March 6 to March 7 in Warsaw.

The Awards jury will cast the final vote one night before the CEE Business Services Summit & Awards. On March 6 and March 7, attendees of the CEE Business Services Summit & Awards will be able to cast their votes for individual Awards via a Brella platform. The Jury Vote will be weighted 2/3 and the Popular Vote 1/3. The Awards Auditors will compile all results to be unveiled at the Gala Awards ceremony.
