The "12 Step with a Twist" meetings, which will be held at the New Life Recovery center, 201 S Lincoln Ave, will offer a unique approach to the traditional AA/NA meetings in Loveland, CO. These meetings will incorporate faith-based principles and teachings, providing a deeper spiritual aspect to the recovery process. The meetings will be open to anyone in the community who is seeking support and guidance in their journey towards sobriety.

In addition to the weekly meetings, New Life Recovery will also offer free, long-term residential treatment programs for both men and women. These programs will provide a safe and supportive environment for individuals to heal and recover from their addiction. New Life Recovery believes that God made us with an empty spot inside only He can fill. It is that intimate, passionate relationship with Him that will heal any addiction forever.

"We are excited to open our doors and offer a new kind of drug rehab in Loveland, CO," says Victor Stewart, founder of New Life Recovery, who has 30+ years clean from drugs. "Our goal is to provide a place where individuals can find hope and healing through faith. We believe that true recovery is not just about overcoming addiction, but also about finding a new purpose and direction in life, through their intimate relationship with Jesus"

If you are at the "end of your rope"...

New Life Recovery is committed to helping individuals break free from the cycle of addiction and start a new life.

The center is open to anyone in need, regardless of their financial situation. With the combination of faith-based principles and evidence-based treatment methods, New Life Recovery hopes to make a positive impact in the community and help individuals find lasting
