Angela Lee, Founder, 37 Angels, Columbia University Professor

“

I personally attended this boot camp in the late summer of 2023. WOW, I learned in 2 days what Angela Lee teaches in her 13 week master's course at Columbia University”.

Renee DeLuca Dolan

By the end of the bootcamp, you will feel knowledgeable and confident as you set out to build a portfolio of startup investments that you feel excited about! In addition, in the year following the program, you will have access to 37 Angels' deal flow and continued learning opportunities (such as educational workshops and industry deep-dives) to help you kickstart your angel journey. I took the bootcamp in New York City this past September and am now part of the 37 Angel network of over 100 people at this time.

Applications are now open, apply by Feb 29, to receive a $1,000 early-bird discount!

Visit - <http://www.37angels.com/cleveland> for more info and to sign up today.
