

Aumnics Inc launches Amy.pro: A major shift in enterprise collaboration using the conversational technology

Amy.pro: The ultimate AI assistant for enterprises that simplifies and automates complex tasks in an enterprise. A new standard in enterprise collaboration.

NJ, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, January 31, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aumnics Inc launches Amy.pro: A major shift in enterprise collaboration using the conversational technology

Amy.pro, a AI-driven workplace assistant, is bringing a revolutionary new standard in enterprise collaboration. Since the launch of MSN chat in 1996, the same technology has been used with work email to create a workspace with very stagnant innovation. Amy.pro emerges as a modern, dynamic solution tailored for today's remote and multifaceted work environments, harnessing the power of AI and machine learning technology.

"Amy.pro is not just an incremental improvement; it's a fundamental shift in how enterprises will collaborate in the age of AI," says Kiran Teegala, Founder and CEO of Aumnics Inc. "Our vision is to create an experience akin to Siri or Alexa but focused on the unique needs of an enterprise."The platform is engineered to multiply workplace productivity and decision-making. Its conversational AI interface simplifies complex tasks with collaboration, HR, web management, recruitment, and project management, addressing the operational complexities and tool overload plaguing today's enterprises.

Amy, your AI-driven workplace assistant

Kiran Teegala, a programmer turned serial entrepreneur with over 20+ years in enterprise software, has been the driving force behind Amy.pro. His expertise and foresight have transformed a visionary concept into a tangible, market-ready product.

As the enterprise collaboration market, projected to reach $48.1 billion by 2024, continues to expand, Amy.pro positions itself as a critical player. The launch not only marks a significant milestone for Aumnics Inc, but a game-changer for enterprises worldwide. Amy is entirely self-funded so far and is in talks with top VC firms to raise a seed round of $3m to advance customer acquisition globally. Amy is poised to disrupt the traditional norms of enterprise collaboration.
