The New Orleans Jazz Fest, known for its eclectic mix of music, culture, and art, will run for eight days-spanning two weekends, from April 26 to May 5, 2024. The Rolling Stones are scheduled to perform on the final Sunday, May 5, at 8 PM, bringing their iconic sound to the Fair Grounds Race

Course. This performance marks a highlight in the festival's rich history, offering a rare opportunity to see the rock legends live.

Joining Mick Jagger and the Rolling Stones in headlining this music lover's extravaganza are some of the biggest names in the industry. Fans can look forward to electrifying performances from Chris Stapleton, Foo Fighters, Queen Latifah and many more. The festival will also feature a diverse array of artists across various genres, ensuring there's something for everyone.
