SelectHub announces its top vendors in PPM Software in the Analysts' Picks, Best-in-Class, and User Favorite categories

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES,
February 5, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

SelectHub, a leader in software research and selection, today announced the winners of its "Best Of" Awards for 2024 in the project portfolio management \(PPM\) software category. These awards are part of SelectHub's commitment to identifying and celebrating the top performers in various software domains. The awards recognize the top PPM solutions across 11 categories based on analyst ratings and user reviews.

Marcus Flemming, VP of Marketing at SelectHub, said, "SelectHub's 'Best Of' awards spotlight the premier PPM software based on our in-depth and transparent evaluation of leading vendors in the market. Our proprietary 400+ point analysis allows us to offer our end users a range of software solutions that excel in critical areas such as financial management, team collaboration and more, to drive innovation and growth."

Sandesh Sindiri, Head of Software Solutions and Technology Research at SelectHub, commented, "We have identified the true champions in the PPM landscape by meticulously evaluating industry KPIs defined by dedicated users within our cutting-edge technology selection management platform. As the PPM industry evolves, we recognize the influential role of emerging trends such as AI-augmentation and advanced analytics in shaping the management and implementation of project portfolios."

SelectHub evaluated 171 vendors across nine categories of software capabilities, alongside categories for analyst and user favorites. The Analysts' Pick award recognizes the top-tier software vendors in the industry based on SelectHub's in-depth analysis. The User Favorite award honors products that receive excellent ratings from real users.
