lessons on composition, and Jodie King's tried and true color mixing methodology, the Honest Art Bootcamp promises to be the quintessential resource for artists striving to produce their most genuine and compelling work.

With decades of professional experience and a vast collection of sold paintings, alongside her participation in esteemed conferences and global workshops, Jodie King asserts that the pursuit of fine art is a learnable skill, accessible to all who are willing to embark on the journey. At the core of her philosophy lies a profound conviction in the transformative power of artistic expression, enabling individuals to reveal their true selves. Reflecting on her mission, King shares “Art serves as a conduit for unearthing our most genuine identities. Sharing my unconventional painting techniques and life principles with others, empowering them to craft their own remarkable and authentic creations, fulfills a lifelong aspiration.”

The Honest Art Bootcamp is meticulously crafted to realize this vision. Over the course of six intensive weeks, participants will engage in two live sessions weekly (12 total) with Jodie King. Every Monday, from February 5th to March 11th, King will unveil transformative insights acquired from her success in the art world, equipping participants with the tools to transcend mediocrity and elevate their work to the realm of fine art. Additionally, every Wednesday during the Bootcamp, participants will benefit from personalized Art Critique and Q&A sessions, facilitating a deeper understanding of their artistic strengths and areas for growth, thereby enabling long-term refinement of their craft.

To further the immersive learning experience participants of the Honest Art Bootcamp will receive six comprehensive workbooks, designed to facilitate enduring growth and transformation based on the program's teachings, along with exclusive discounts on Jodie King's favorite art tools and supplies.

Enrollment for the Honest Art Bootcamp is currently open until February 16th, with a special introductory price of $777, inclusive of the first week free.
