Crossroads Talent Solutions, headquartered in Poolesville, Md., and operating in 29 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico, provides administrative, recruitment, staffing, human resources, and program management consultation and support.

The contract, involving about 60 personnel, focuses on supporting the Military Personnel Division, Transition Center, and Retirement Services Office. Crossroads Talent Solutions will begin the contract with a kickoff meeting this week and start transitioning the following week. The services include managing Soldier Readiness Processing during peak periods and supporting various military personnel and their families, including active and reserve military personnel, National Guard members, DoD Civilian workforce, military and DoD Civilian retirees, and DoD contractors.

"This contract marks a monumental milestone for our company, reinforcing our commitment to supporting those who serve our nation," Singh said. "We are dedicated to delivering the highest quality of service at Fort Knox.”

Singh said the contract signifies an expansion of Crossroads Talent Solutions' commitment to providing high-quality services to military personnel. The company has a history of supporting military and government entities, focusing on delivering excellence and innovative solutions across various sectors.

“After meeting with the team who will provide this invaluable support, I'm absolutely confident that we'll see this effort through with incredible precision,” said Singh. “The Crossroads Talent Solutions team providing this service are experienced, ready, and more than willing to get the job done. We're very fortunate to have such professionals serve our troops.”
