Championships of Avian Knights, hosted by Alan-1, reached its grand finale on January 27, 2024 at Flynn's

Retrocade, revealing Retroman21 as the tournament champion, with

Mockduck and The Director securing the second and third places, respectively. The event, which was the first in-person tournament for Avian Knights, brought together the game's top talents in a battle for glory and a record prize pool.

Retroman21, known for his strategic mastery and unparalleled skills in Avian Knights, emerged victorious after a series of intense matches, claiming the top prize of $10,000. "Retroman21 has demonstrated exceptional talent and an unwavering dedication to Avian Knights," said Luke Anderson, Chief Gaming Director at Alan-1. "His victory is well deserved and we're excited to see how long he will hold the crown, especially if he will be crowned the champion next year."

The second-place finisher, Mockduck, showcased incredible prowess throughout the tournament, earning them the runner-up position and a prize of $5,000. The Director, with their innovative strategies and keen gameplay, secured the third place, winning $2,500.

"The level of competition and sportsmanship displayed during the Avian Knights Grand Championship was truly remarkable," stated James Anderson, Chief Visionary Officer. "We congratulate Retroman21, Mockduck, and The Director for their outstanding performances and thank all participants and fans who made this event a success."

The tournament not only celebrated the best in competitive Avian Knights play but also brought the community together, with fans attending both in-person and online via live streams. Alan-1 is committed to continuing support for the Avian Knights community through future events and updates.

The Competitors of the Grand Championship
