MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, February 5, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The artist BIANCO VELEZ from Cali, Colombia begins this year surprising all his fans with the launch of his new single 'Hasta que Vuelvas', a song that grooves to the rhythm of reggaeton pop that one day after its official release entered the playlist "Vevo Incoming Latin" and is currently #39 in Colombia radio on the Pop Rhythmic national radio charts.

We are very proud of Bianco and the team, having reached the radio charts in the first week of release is a great accomplishment from everyone”

CEO Andres Maldonado of Blackvird Music

'Hasta Que Vuelvas' was produced by the Blackvird Music team and mastered by Jairo Sanz from Sanz studios in Medellín, the song is the reflection of a love story that young people are currently living today, where they hope that, that special person in their lives will remain by their side and that even though they move away or distance themselves, they have the certainty of knowing that one day that special person will return with the hope of continuing being together in the future.

“I am very happy and very grateful for the entire process that has been built, I know that a new path begins for me as an artist in which I have been working very hard, I hope that all my followers identify with each of my songs,” says Bianco Velez.

BIANCO continues to work hand in hand with his team, Andres Duque Maldonado CEO of Blackvird Music, and Pablo Andrade A&R and Manager who collectively have more than 23 years of experience in the music industry in Latin America and the United States with artists and
