GOLD COAST, QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA, February 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chrysaor Announces Oscar® Nominated "Four Daughters" Theatrical Release in ANZ

Eya Chikhaoui and Tayssir Chikhaoui in Four Daughters (2023)

"As a documentary filmmaker myself, 'Four Daughters' deeply resonated with me. Witnessing its debut at Cannes last May, I knew it deserved a wider audience. Kaouther Ben Hania's storytelling is powerful and compelling, and I'm honoured to distribute this masterpiece in Australia and New Zealand." - Christopher Amos

Its journey from a festival favourite to an Oscar®-nominated masterpiece is a testament to Kaouther Ben Hania's powerful storytelling.”

Christopher Amos

One of the year's most acclaimed releases, this riveting documentary by filmmaker Kaouther Ben Hania (Oscar® nominated 'The Man Who Sold His Skin') uses an audacious formal conceit to tell the story of Olfa Hamrouni and her four daughters. Attempting to answer the question of how and why the Tunisian woman's two eldest were radicalised, Ben Hania reveals a complex history. We watch as the family relives key events in their lives with help from professional actors standing in for the missing girls.

Winner of the Best Documentary award at the Cannes Film Festival, Best Documentary Feature at the Gotham Awards, and Best Writing at the IDA Documentary Awards, Four Daughters is a compelling portrait of five women and a unique and ambitious work of nonfiction cinema that pushes against the conventional boundaries of the documentary form to explore the nature of memory, rebellion, and the ties that bind mothers and daughters.
