Esha Bhasin

Autism Center of Excellence (AutismCOE), a leading provider of comprehensive Autism Therapy services, is proud to announce the opening of a new clinic in Durham. The new clinic is conveniently located at 1000 Park Forty Plaza, Suite 110, Durham, NC 27713 (near the intersection of Highway 40 and NC Highway 55). The new state-of-the-art facility is set to offer a range of specialized therapy services for children aged 2 to 14 years, including ABA Therapy, Early Intervention, School Readiness Programs, and Speech Therapy.

Autism COE has been at the forefront of Autism care, offering ABA therapy, ABA for Early Intervention, ABA for School Readiness, Speech Therapy, and Occupational Therapy to children from 2 to 14 years old in-home and center-based environments. The organization's mission is to provide personalized, high-quality care and support to children with autism and their families, fostering development, learning, and independence.

Esha Bhasin, CEO of AutismCOE, expressed her enthusiasm about the new clinic: "Our expansion into Durham represents our mission to reach and support more families affected by Autism. We provide our comprehensive and individualized therapy services to help children thrive in their development and learning. This new clinic allows us to extend our reach and make a positive impact on the lives of children and families in Durham, Raleigh and the surrounding communities."

The Durham clinic is part of Autism COE's broader initiative to improve access to autism therapy services in North Carolina and beyond. With locations already serving families in Raleigh, Chapel Hill, Apex, Garner, Wake Forest, Cary, Fayetteville, and across Virginia, Autism COE is committed to support for the autism community.
