Following the impactful duet with Tracy Chapman at the Grammys on February 4th, 2024, the Traffic Cones For Less team was excited to revisit the collaboration with the BMI art team and showcase the design that adorned the traffic cones in 2022.

“

Traffic Cones offer an unparalleled branding option, and we feel fortunate to have collaborated with Luke Combs and BMI on this distinctive project. We are truly grateful for the trust placed in us.”

Melissa Schechter CEO

Melissa Schechter, Founder and CEO of OES Global, expressed her gratitude for the unique opportunity: "Our exclusive Full Color Spectrum Custom Branded Traffic Cones offer an unparalleled branding option, and we feel fortunate to have collaborated with Luke Combs and BMI on this distinctive project. We are truly grateful for the trust placed in us."

The Luke Combs - Traffic Cones connection gains renewed significance with the massive success of the 2023 release, "Fast Car," and the soulful duet with Tracy Chapman at the 2024 Grammys.

"We were honored to see Luke Combs sharing pictures of our cones on his social media. It's always rewarding to witness our clients taking the time to showcase the unique work our team has done in creating these one-of-a-kind Traffic Safety Cones," Schechter continued.
