year," says Julie Socash, President of the Make-Up Artists & Hair Stylists Guild.

A 14-time US National Champion and two-time World Dance Champion, Val rose to stardom as a fan-favorite professional. Val also appeared in the 2021 award-winning Amazon Prime film "Being the Ricardos." He has since appeared on numerous television shows, including Netflix's "Fuller House" and Fox's "Flirty Dancing," and served as a judge on the inaugural season of "Dancing with the Stars: Juniors." Val has starred in six DWTS national tours, eventually co-writing and co-directing his very own 55-city North American tour "Our Way" as well as additional sold-out national tours including "Confidential" and "Stripped Down."

In 2018, Val released his first memoir titled "I'll Never Change My Name," which detailed his life, career, and experience as an Eastern European immigrant. As a classically trained violinist, Val has performed at Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center.

Val is the co-founder and owner of Dance with Me Studios, a leading nationwide network of dance studios with the mission of making dance accessible to all people regardless of skill level. In response to the 2022 humanitarian crisis in Ukraine, Val, along with his brother and father, launched Baranova 27, a charitable organization that provides funds and humanitarian aid, including medical, hygiene, baby supplies, and more, to those in need in the country.

As previously announced, Michael Westmore, Oscar- and Emmy-winning make-up artist known for his iconic work on "Rocky," "Star Trek," "Mask" and "Raging Bull," will be honored with the esteemed Vanguard Award. Kevin Haney, Oscar- and Emmy-winning make-up artist best known for his work on "Driving Miss Daisy," "Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 3" and "Hocus Pocus 2"; and Ora T. Green, Emmy-nominated hairstylist known for her work on "Star Trek: Nemesis," "Blade" and "Good Times," will receive the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Awards.

Winners will be announced at the Awards Gala on Saturday, February 18, 2024. The MUAHS Awards are co-produced by IngleDodd Media and Honeysweet Creative.
