

Pest Solution Services Launches New Website to Better Serve Homeowners in Toronto

Toronto, Canada – Pest Solution Services, an entomologist-led company that is licensed by Canada's Ministry of Environment and has been operating as a specialist bed bug exterminator in Toronto since 2010, is proud to announce the launch of its new website that has been optimized to better serve homeowners in Toronto.

With its range of bed bug, ant, mice, and rat extermination services being offered throughout Toronto and the Greater Toronto Area, Pest Solution Services' new website now features an expanded blog section that offers homeowners instant access to expert research and opinions on how to stay safe after a bed bug outbreak, what can be done to fix the issue and in-depth information on what bed bugs are.

Committed to serving its community, the experienced pest control specialists hope that its improved blog will help educate families on how best to avoid and resolve their bed bug situation, as well as how to avoid an occurrence again in the future.

"Pest Solution Services has completed 13 years of operation; you can trust the well-established, Toronto-based business," said a spokesperson for Pest Solution Services (pestsolutionservices.ca). "We are led by an entomologist with more than 30 years of experience in Canadian and international pest control. We are a company built upon ethics, honesty, reliability, and homeowner support for every bed bug job."

Pest Solution Services has established an impressive reputation in Toronto for its 100% extermination guarantee. It assures that each treatment option its professional team offers is uniquely customized to each homeowner's needs to ensure bed bugs, mice, and ants will not return.

This customer-focused approach and meticulous attention to detail is what has earned the long-standing expert bed bug control company a 9.9/10 average testimonial rating on HomeStars reviews, a free service that publishes reviews written by homeowners about home improvement professionals, as well as consistently receive HomeStars Best Of " award 9 years in a row for upholding positive client satisfaction for bed bug extermination in Toronto and Greater Toronto Area.

Pest Solution Services provides an array of industry-leading pest control and specialist bed bug removal services that all ensure a thorough inspection process, customized extermination methods, expertise paired with integrity, excellent communication skills, and educative support. These services include:

Bed Bug Extermination: Consisting of a visual and forensic inspection before targeted treatment and follow-up services, Pest Solution Services makes sure bed bugs are completely removed from the home without damaging any furniture and fittings.

Mice and Rat Extermination: Pest Solution Services will employ various extermination strategies that involve multiple techniques to guarantee the elimination of mice and rats.
