

Julia Faller, Founder of Benedetta, Shares Her Deep Ties to Petaluma's Community in Recent Feature by The Press Democrat

PETALUMA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, February 8, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Julia Faller, the visionary pioneer of Benedetta, recently highlighted her profound connection to Petaluma's community in a captivating feature by Argus-Courier. A licensed esthetician since the '80s, Faller's unwavering passion for organic skincare spurred the creation of Benedetta in 1996, a journey marked by challenges and success.

Reflecting on the early struggles, Faller candidly shared, "It was an uphill battle all the way. People I worked with said it was too difficult to do – suppliers, laboratories, even state regulations were hard to navigate."

Petaluma played a crucial role in Faller's journey. She reminisced, "I began distribution with Whole Foods, the old 'Food for Thought.' That was tremendously successful, and eventually, I opened a storefront in the San Francisco Ferry Building in 2009."

Faller's commitment to innovation manifested with the recent launch of the Benedetta store within Petaluma's Great Petaluma Mill. She hinted, "There are some really interesting developments coming for the Petaluma store."

Faller's story is one of resilience and dedication, encapsulating Benedetta's evolution from challenging beginnings to global success. As Benedetta continues to flourish, Faller's passion for community, skincare, and innovation remains at the forefront of her journey.
