

Weiner Team Op Eds in Detroit News, Montreal Gazette, Pulse Institute on Trump Delays and Olympic Doping, Incl H2 OEN

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, February 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The first article, first published in Detroit News on January 28, and ranked H2 (#2 nationally) in OpEdNews, is by Robert Weiner and Ting Cui on Donald Trump's "delay, delay, delay" tactics in his court cases. The authors agreed with OpEdNews Publisher Rob Kall that it would become as a "huge failure of the justice system" if no trials and verdicts before the election. Weiner and Cui asserted that voters deserve a "timely decision" before election day.

In the second article, by Weiner, Cui, and Gene Lambey, the authors argue that the use of performance-enhancing drugs by nations disrespects the efforts of clean athletes who uphold the integrity of the Olympics. The piece published in the Montreal Gazette on February 6th is about the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) decision regarding Olympic figure skater Kamila Valieva, demanding justice for clean athletes and stronger measures from Russia to combat its state sponsored doping. The third article, by Weiner and Lambey, titled, "Even with Child Tax Credit Partially Restored, Children's Food Shortage and Federal Housing Cutback Imminent in House," was published in the Pulse Institute on February 7, 2024. The article exemplifies how Republican cutbacks infringe upon the basic rights of Americans and proposes more Congressional action protecting sources of food for children and state housing vouchers.

Finally, in what The Carter Center announced as the very last print edition of the Carter Mondale News Letter, Weiner, former Chief of Staff under Chairman Claude Pepper for the Hoyle Aging Committee and former Carter/Mondale campaign aide, wrote a piece describing President Carter and Rep. Pepper's ending of age-based mandatory retirement. Also included is a photo of Weiner with President Carter at the House Aging Committee meeting at White House where Carter supported (and later signed) a bill banning age discrimination in employment.
