My clients and their cases are my priority – my cause.”

Before becoming a lawyer, Mr. Gebo, a Service-Disabled Veteran, served in the U.S. Army as a combat helicopter pilot and maintenance officer. His overseas assignments included tours in Panama (Operation Just Cause), Saudi Arabia (Operation Desert Shield), and Iraq (Operation Desert Storm).

A renowned litigator, advisor, and counselor with nearly 30 years' experience in the government contract sector, Carl Gebo – Gebo Law's Founder and Principal Member – began practicing law in Atlanta in 1995, after earning his Juris Doctor from Northwestern University School of Law. For nearly 20 years, Mr. Gebo practiced government contract law at several national law firms based in Atlanta, serving as a government contracts practice group leader within litigation departments. In 2014, he founded Gebo Law LLC, to make his vast experience and client-focused approach to government contract cases available to a broader range of government contractors.

"Starting a law firm focused on representing government contractors was an obvious and necessary step to achieving my goal of serving that underserved sector, which faces complex challenges, oftentimes without legal counsel," said Mr. Gebo. "My clients and their cases are my priority – my cause. "

Throughout his nearly three decades serving government contractors, Mr. Gebo has represented contractors in numerous contexts in the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and other federal and state courts. He is also experienced in representing clients before the Government Accountability Office (GAO), the Small Business Administration Office of Hearings and Appeals (SBA OHA), and other federal and state administrative tribunals established for public procurement matters. And he regularly advises his clients on the myriad of compliance issues faced by government contractors.

Mr. Gebo is also actively involved in the Atlanta community. He is a board member of the Veterans Empowerment Organization (VEO), a 501(c)(3) committed to serving the needs of homeless veterans. And since 1995, he has passionately committed himself to working with high schoolers as the attorney coach for the Midtown High School mock trial team.
