The guide covers festivals of all sizes and locations, from the massive C2C: Country to Country, which takes place in London, Glasgow and Belfast, to the intimate Westcountry Music Festival, which is set in a barn in Devon. The guide also includes information on the festival line-ups, tickets, venues, and dates, as well as tips on how to make the most of the festival experience.

Whether you are looking for a big festival with international stars, or a small festival with local talent, you will find something to suit your taste and budget in our guide.”
