This significant achievement underscores the podcast's compelling content, engaging discussions, and the co-hosts' dedication to exploring the depths of human kink and sexuality with openness, respect, and insight.

We are overwhelmed by the incredible response to our podcast. Reaching a TOP 30 spot in such a short time is beyond our expectations, and it motivates us to keep bringing kink out of the shadows.”

Tommy and Isabelle

Since its inception, "Talking Kinky" has captivated thousands of listeners in more than 25 countries worldwide, offering a fresh, enlightening perspective on a range of mild to wild topics related to kink, desire, and sexual exploration.

According to Rephonic.com, Talking Kinky has already had nearly 2000 listeners per episode and that popularity is largely due to Isabelle and Tom's fearless approach to diving into both the known and the lesser-known aspects of kink. This has clearly resonated with a diverse audience, fostering a community of listeners eager to learn, share, and discuss.

The podcast's rapid climb in the rankings is a testament to the wonderful chemistry between the co-hosts, its quality content and dialogue, relevance, and the growing appetite for content that breaks down barriers and promotes a healthy, inclusive understanding of kink and sexuality.

With listeners spanning across five continents and ranging in ages from early twenties to those in their golden years, "Talking Kinky" has proven its universal appeal and the importance of having open dialogues about topics that are often considered taboo.

Isabelle and Tom expressed their gratitude to their listeners, stating, "We are overwhelmed by the incredible response to our podcast. Reaching a TOP 30 spot in such a short time is beyond our expectations, and it motivates us to keep pushing boundaries, exploring new topics, and providing our audience with content that is not only informative but also empowering."

As "Talking Kinky" continues to grow, Isabelle and Tom are committed to maintaining the podcast's high standards, engaging with their listeners, and contributing to a broader conversation about sexuality, kink, and personal empowerment.
