"Surviving Mann" is not just a show—it's the ultimate survival challenge, as contestants are taken to remote training locations to battle for the chance to lead Mann's definitive tactical team.

Additionally, joining Mann each season is a slate of celebrity co-hosts that includes MMA legend Randy Couture (Season 1), "America's Sheriff" Mark Lamb (Season 2), and renowned survival tactics expert Mike Glover of Fieldcraft Survival (Season 3 - currently filming).

"Packed with the perfect blend of action, drama, and physical competition, 'Surviving Mann' is the perfect complement to the Game+ lineup," said

Chad Midgley, VP of Content for Anthem. "We look forward to sharing it with our viewers throughout Canada when the series debuts on February 12, and we hope that it will continue to inspire a new wave of survival enthusiasts."

"Bringing 'Surviving Mann' to Canada through Game+ marks a significant milestone for the series," Mann said. "I am eager to see how Canadian fans engage with the show's challenges and lessons in resilience, survival, and strategy. It's an honor to share our journey and inspire audiences in The Great White North."

"Our vision for 'Surviving Mann' was to create a show that pushes boundaries and tests the limits of human endurance, while inspiring viewers to take on and explore new challenges," said Bob Cefail, CEO of American Stories Entertainment. "Launching on the Game+ Network signifies an exciting new chapter for us, and we are confident that the show will resonate with Canadian audiences from all walks of life. We look forward to this new adventure and the opportunity to inspire and entertain our Northern neighbors."
