Johnson is mostly recognized for her finesse on the hardwood, helping bring the Lady Tigers back on the national map in just two years with the program. However, if you follow her career, you know that she is also a recording hip-hop artist with a passion for rapping.

"I'm continually amazed by Flau'jae's talent and seeing her shine on such a big stage like this is awesome," McKernan said. "We're proud to work with someone who represents our firm so well and look forward to more exciting projects in the future.”

Johnson signed a Name, Image and Likeness \(NIL\) deal with McKernan in February 2023, enabling the student-athlete to leverage her brand beyond the basketball court and pursue other passions. Together, they have collaborated on various projects where Johnson promotes Gordon McKernan Injury Attorneys while showcasing her love for basketball and music.
