

JARC FLORIDA HOSTS 38TH ANNUAL GALA DINNER AT BOCA WEST COUNTRY CLUB

Event Celebrates 38 Years of Helping Extraordinary Individuals Lead Ordinary Lives and Looks Forward to the Future

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES, February 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- JARC Florida, a non-profit, non-sectarian organization that provides programs and services to educate and empower individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, is hosting its 38th Annual Gala on Sunday, March 3, 2024 at Boca West

Country Club in Boca Raton, Florida. The event kicks off at 6:00 pm with cocktails followed by the program start and dinner at 7:00 pm. This year, the first annual Lynne & Howard Halpern Award for Champions of Special Needs will be presented to Toby and Leon Cooperman during the event. The evening celebrates 38 years of helping extraordinary people lead ordinary lives and looks forward to a bright future.

The JARC Gala Dinner Dance is always a celebration of JARC clients, their families, our staff, generous donors and volunteers, and those partners that make it all possible.”

Jeffrey Zirulnick, CEO, JARC Florida

$100/each or six (6) for $500.

“The JARC Gala Dinner Dance is always a celebration of JARC clients, their families, our staff, generous donors and volunteers, and those partners that make it all possible,” said Jeffrey Zirulnick, Chief Executive Officer for JARC Florida. “Our event is always a hit for our guests as we invite everyone to come be a part of the excitement by enjoying the festivities!”

JARC's 38th Annual Gala will raise money to support JARC FL and its essential programs and services including the Dr. Allen & Annette Stone Adult Day Training Program, The Selma & Irving Ettenberg Foundation Community Works and ADAPT (Adults Aging in Place Together). Last year's event raised more than $600,000. Zirulnick says the organization's goal is to surpass that number this year.

Clayman, Lynne & Howard Halpern, and The Haverford Trust Company.

About JARC FL

JARC Florida, a non-sectarian organization based in Boca Raton, provides programs and services to educate and empower individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. The organization's vision is to remove barriers to independence so that each person with intellectual and developmental disabilities is better able to reach his or her potential. JARC currently operates ten group homes in the Boca Raton and Delray Beach area for adults with developmental disabilities. JARC offers apartment living for those who do not require 24-hour supervision as well as vocational training in the Mel & Elaine Stein Living and Learning Center. The organization was created in the mid 1980's in response to the needs of families with adult children with developmental disabilities. Learn more at <http://jarcfl.org>.
