“The best part of being a DJ is feeling the energy from the crowd when you’ve got them bouncing,” says Ultralight. “Tapping into the nostalgia of a classic track adds another level of excitement to the mix that’s hard to match.”

DJ Ultralight is a Los Angeles based music maker that has been entertaining crowds in Southern California for over a decade. He’s been teamed up with Thump Records for multiple releases and has become an in-house DJ for projects, special events and more. Specializing in mixing classic jams and giving them an updated sound, DJ Ultralight can appeal to fans of the original song, as well as new audiences alike.

A follow up to his latest single, “Cha Cha Slide”, the new track shows off the skills that have made

DJ Ultralight a legend in LA.
