surpass even their loftiest fundraising goals, by collectively raising well over $100 million dollars.

Sharon possesses an extraordinary talent for guiding her clients beyond the mental and emotional barriers that often hinder their fundraising success. Her expertise lies in orchestrating major gifts and capital campaigns, and transforming her clients' aspirations into tangible, awe-inspiring achievements.

In a powerful collaboration with Dr. Cornell Verdeja-Woodson, Sharon co-founded LGBTQ eLearning, a company that has received widespread acclaim for its flagship self-paced eLearning course 'Building LGBTQ+ Inclusive Workplaces.' This eCourse serves as a guiding light, fostering understanding, compassion, and helping to create a greater sense of belonging in workplaces across various sectors.

Sharon's academic journey reflects her unwavering commitment to making the world a better place. With a master's degree from UC Berkeley's School of Social Welfare and a license as a clinical social worker (LCSW), she possesses the compassion and skills needed to create meaningful growth for individuals, teams, and companies. Additionally, Sharon earned a B.A. in Gender Studies from the University of California, Santa Cruz, and a Diversity and Inclusion certificate from Cornell University. This educational background forms the foundation of her holistic approach to fostering inclusivity.

The impact of Sharon's work was officially recognized by the City of Santa Cruz, CA, when they declared January 12, 2021 'Sharon Papo Day,' to honor Sharon's intersectional movement building and advocacy for the LGBTQ+ community.

Sharon lives in California where she shares her life with her wife and two energetic, lovable kids that fuel her drive to create a world where everyone can thrive, regardless of who they are.
