Elizabeth Gibson Dunn, a revered transformational life coach and facilitator, brings a wealth of experience and a deeply personal journey of empowerment to the project. With a mission to empower women to transcend past trauma and embrace their authentic selves, Elizabeth draws from her own transformative journey of healing from early childhood trauma prior to being adopted from an orphanage in Mexico City. Beyond her professional endeavors, Elizabeth takes great pride in her loving family, built alongside her husband of over 20 years, including their college-aged daughter and two rescue dogs. In her cherished "me" time, Elizabeth finds solace in daily meditation, leisurely walks with her dogs, and quality time spent with her loved ones. Her passions extend to volunteering, traveling, dancing for joy, and indulging in her favorite podcasts and audiobooks.
