against me by a family member and I was very stressed due to having limited legal knowledge. Mr Clements was very patient, professional and informative. He explained the law and guided me through all the process for my appeal. He actually made the process very simple and gave me a successful outcome which I am very thankful of him. Thank you once again Mr Clements for your excellent work and for saving my reputation. And thank you Sydney Criminal Lawyers for great communication and service!," mentioned Naseema Syeed, one of its clientele on Google Reviews.

While Nick R wrote, "Lingwei Kong was extremely helpful and personable in my recent driving case. He took time to make sure I was adequately prepared with references and gave me multiple links to driving offender programs etc. He even communicated with me on his own personal time. We achieved a favourable outcome on the day. I would recommend his service and professionalism to others."
