

ABADIE LLC Appoints Hollis Gibbs, P.E., P.M.P., as Chief Operating Officer

MANDEVILLE, LOUISIANA, UNITED STATES, February 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ABADIE LLC ("ABADIE"), a leading Midstream Infrastructure and Deepwater Port Development company, is pleased to announce the appointment of Hollis Gibbs, P.E., P.M.P., as its new Chief Operating Officer. Hollis rejoins ABADIE, bringing a wealth of experience and expertise to his new role.

Hollis previously served as a Senior Project Engineer for ABADIE, contributing significantly to the success of the Sentinel Midstream Texas GulfLink deepwater port initiative and various projects with ExxonMobil Pipeline Company and Crescent Midstream. Before his initial tenure with ABADIE, Hollis held the position of Zone Projects Engineer at ExxonMobil Pipeline Company, showcasing his dedication and proficiency in the midstream sector.

"I'm thrilled to rejoin ABADIE as Chief Operating Officer, bringing my passion for operational excellence to this dynamic midstream company. Together with our dedicated team, we're poised to innovate and create sustainable solutions within the oil and LNG space. I look forward to contributing to ABADIE's success and leading the way in the exciting landscape of the midstream sector," shared Hollis Gibbs about his return.

ABADIE's Chief Executive Officer, Tyler M. Abadie, P.E., expressed enthusiasm about Hollis Gibbs rejoining the company, stating, "Hollis has a tremendous gift for organizing complex projects into the appropriate engineering, operational, and construction segments. His ability to engage personnel on an individual level and encourage team members allows him to position both stakeholders and employees for success."

"As ABADIE Energy moves forward evaluating several opportunities in the traditional midstream space," Tyler continued, "Hollis' operational experience and understanding of the midstream
