

Jatheon Technologies Adds Zoom Archiving to Jatheon Cloud

Jatheon Technologies announced the release of Zoom archiving on their AWS-based data archiving platform, Jatheon Cloud.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, February 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jatheon Technologies, a tech company specializing in long-term archiving and search of electronic records for compliance and ediscovery, announced the release of Zoom archiving on their AWS-based data archiving platform, Jatheon Cloud.

This development marks a significant expansion in Jatheon's capabilities, which already encompass a broad spectrum of business communication channels including email, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Microsoft Teams, Bloomberg, WhatsApp, Google Chat, WeChat, and SMS. Jatheon allows organizations the flexibility to either integrate Zoom archiving with other data sources or to exclusively archive Zoom communications, depending on their specific needs.

Jelena Popovic, Jatheon Cloud Product Manager, emphasizes the strategic importance of this update: "With the integration of Zoom archiving, we are significantly enhancing our platform's functionality. We also incorporated the archiving of messages exchanged between participants during these meetings, as well as default Zoom Messages. Zoom Webinars are on our roadmap."
