

Super Processor Partners with Rectangle Health to Advance Patient Payments for Healthcare Providers

Super Processor and Rectangle Health partner to give healthcare providers cutting edge payment technology which saves them time and money

LAS VEGAS, NV, USA, February 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Super Processor, a leading provider of cutting-edge payment solutions, is pleased to announce a strategic partnership with Rectangle Health, a pioneer of healthcare technology. Through this collaboration, Super Processor will leverage Rectangle Health's Practice Management Bridge® platform to bring Bridge™ Payments - comprehensive, HIPAA-compliant payment technology - to healthcare providers nationwide, enhancing convenience and transparency for patients while optimizing back-office processes and generating substantial cost savings for medical offices.

Super Processor co-founder and CEO, Michael W. K. Tsang, expressed enthusiasm about the relationship, stating, "We are honored to distribute this cutting-edge solution to medical providers and partner with a company like Rectangle Health, whose technology has been trusted by thousands of providers for over three decades. Bridge™ Payments will bring ease and efficiency to medical practices' payments processes, regardless of their size and complexity. This collaboration exemplifies Super Processor's commitment to complementing our card processing platform with disruptive payment technologies to benefit the healthcare sector."

Chris Poche, Vice President of Strategic Partnerships at Rectangle Health, shared his perspective on the partnership, stating, "We are excited to work with Super Processor to bring our Practice Management Bridge platform to more healthcare providers. With these tools and expertise, medical offices can optimize the revenue cycle to ensure the financial, and operational, well-being of their healthcare organization."

This partnership underscores the importance of innovative medical office payment solutions, as Super Processor and Rectangle Health bring efficiency and profitability to healthcare practices nationwide.
