"I've spent my career dedicated to serving and protecting our community, and now I am honored to continue that service in a different capacity," said Executive Manager Seebert. "Stoneridge Hospice represents a new chapter for me and my team, and we are devoted to providing compassionate, personalized care to individuals and families during one of life's most challenging phases."

Stoneridge Hospice offers a range of services designed to meet the unique needs of each patient, including pain management, emotional and spiritual support, and assistance for families navigating the complexities of end-of-life care. The agency is committed to fostering an environment of comfort and dignity, ensuring that every individual receives the care and attention they deserve. Prior to Stoneridge Hospice, Executive Manager Rollie owned and sat on the board of a leading Home Health, Hospice and Palliative Care Agency, Southland Home Care. Prior to selling that company to a national provider, they grew it and its management team at an astounding rate. "The lessons learned from Southland have provided a foundation and framework for us to build a great company on. Stoneridge Hospice will be Arizona's leading provider on Quality Metrics in short order".

Executive Manager Seebert brings a wealth of leadership experience and a deep understanding of community needs to this new venture. The transition from law enforcement to Healthcare is a testament to his dedication to making a positive impact on the lives of others.
