SILVER SPRING, MARYLAND, UNITED STATES, February 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Diamond Sonpon, the acclaimed Actress, Producer, Director, and Content Creator behind viral hits like 'Wallet,' 'Diamond vs. Lagos,' and 'Breaking Bound,' is set to mesmerize audiences once again with her upcoming project, "Coming to Africa: Motherland Connect" The Lagos Experience. This groundbreaking streaming series, scheduled for release in 2024, promises an unparalleled cultural exploration.

The Cast of "Motherland Connect"

"Motherland Connect" is a riveting documentary series that delves into the extraordinary journey of six African-Americans as they embark on a transformative voyage to Lagos, Nigeria, in West Africa. Going beyond the surface, the series courageously confronts the haunting realities of trans-Atlantic slave heritage in Badagry, unraveling layers of resilience etched in landmarks like Olumo Rock, a testament to the strength of ancestors who weathered storms under the Oyo Empire and Dahomey.

Directed by the visionary Micheal Able, the series captures the essence of Nigeria through its rich cuisine, celebrating heritage and diversity. Each episode of "Motherland Connect" becomes a sensory experience, inviting viewers to savor the richness of Nigerian traditions while navigating the bustling streets of Lagos, where a profound sense of homecoming unfolds. This transcendent journey transcends geographical boundaries, portraying a universal quest to understand one's roots.

"Black history is African history; let's honor our past so we can better shape our future."
